Proclamation for a day of National Thanksgiving

The document alluded to in dispatches already published, may be found below, and will interest all our readers We presume it is intended that the usual State plan of fixing a day for the manifestation of devout gratitude, is to give way to a National suggestion by the Executive, very well, such Yankee institutions will be gladly recognized, and respected by all who love the country, and grateful for the blessings bestowed upon it —

The year that is drawing toward its close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies to these bounties which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added which are of so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God In the midst of a civil war of unequaled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggression of foreign States, peace has been preserved with all nations—order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict, while that there has been contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union

The needful diversion of wealth and strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense has not arrested the plow, the shuttle or the ship—the ax has enlarged the borders of our settlements and the mines, as well of iron and coal as the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege and the battle field, and the country is rejoicing in consciousness of augmented strength and vigor—is permitted to expect a continuance of years, with a large increase of freedom

No human counsel hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things They are the precious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, has nevertheless remembered mercy

It hath seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, and reverentially, and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and voice, by the whole American people

I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday in November next as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens and I recommend to them, while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our National perverseness and disobedience commend to His tender care all those who have become widows and orphans or sufferers in the unnatural strife in which we are unavoidably engaged and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty hand to heal the wounds of the Nation, and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace harmony, tranquility and Union

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed

Done at the city of Washington, this third day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863 and of the independence of the United States the eighty eighth (88th)

By the President, A LINCOLN
W H SEWARD, Secretary of State.

NEGRO SOLDIERS HELPING THE SOUTH — The Louisville Journal says it is incredible that the rebel Government should seriously propose to use any army of negroes, promising them freedom when the war is over Perhaps so, and that has always been our opinion, but where save from the slave ranks is the South to get its soldiers Too many of the white men have been killed, very few are left, and of course, if the war goes on, the South must use the same material which it always has used to support those who were enriched by black men, if it can compel slaves to fight as well as to work to support its people, we cannot see why it may not do so. The strength of the South has been in slavery, perhaps we shall now see that its very element of power will work its ruin Below is what the Journal says

The rebel Government has done several incredible things, but this would be the meanest of all Surely the rebels, if they will allow themselves a moment's reflection, cannot but know that it would in any event bring ruin upon their cause and upon their section.

In the first place, the rebels cannot arm and equip an army of negroes In the second place, even if they could do this, placing arms in their hands and accustoming them to military life would bring, especially after the black multitude should get a taste of blood, a horrible peril upon Southern society No negroes thus situated, and feeling their importance and their power, would not wait till the end of the war or even for a specified number of years or months, before asserting their equality and the equality of their families And, in the third place, the adoption of the extraordinary and most fatuitous measure would, as a matter of course, involve, even in the present contemplation of the rebel authorities, the utter and speedy destruction of the institution of slavery and thus the consummation of the cherished designs of the worst and most sagacious enemies that the South ever had

BROKE DOWN —The telegraph wire between this and Oregon City was yesterday broken by the falling upon it of some trees along the route.

THE GREAT CHARLATAN —We begin to fear that after all Louis Napoleon will turn out to be a humbug—in point of fact no impostor —or not to put too fine a point on it a charlatan It certainly is not pleasant to discover that we, as well as the rest of humankind, have been taken in and done for, even by so great a man as the nephew of an uncle Posterity will certainly have the laugh at Lord Palmerston and Mr Seward The former for allowing him to kiss the fair cheek of Queen Victoria, profane as styled by Victor Hugo the British Virgin Mary and the latter for following him to seize Mexico But we must let our readers know our suspicions of Louis Napoleon being a humbug is founded upon the following extract of the London Athenæum concerning the opus magnum of modern literature

La Vie de Cæsar, by Louis Napoleon, is printing at this moment There can be no further doubt about it, and we are in possession of information from the imperial printing office, to the effect that a first impression consisting of 100 copies has been struck off in which the necessary alterations are being made at this time Workmen have been selected for this purpose who have been told that, on the slightest indiscretion of their part, they will lose their places After the printing of each leaf in quarto, every form is secured with three chains and three locks, the keys of which M Poutin, the director of the printing office takes with him. As soon as the printing is completed, the sheets are taken into the Emperor's cabinet; then the collaborateurs set to work correcting the press, or altering such passages as the Emperor wishes to see recast Measures are pretty well taken against any information reaching foreign papers—a subject of great dread to the author The work, it is further said will appear in a few months and in two editions—one printed at the imperial printing office, the other at Paris —Leslie's Illustrated

RAILROAD MEETING —Pursuant to notice, the citizens of Eugene City and vicinity met at the Court House on Thursday evening, October 29th, 1863, for the purpose of further considering the project of the California and Oregon Railroad

On motion, B J Pengra was elected Chairman and M Witchell, Secretary

Mr S Elsworth stated the object of the meeting

Col Chapman offered the following preamble and resolutions

WHEREAS, We learn that the surveying party on the contemplated route for the California and Oregon Railroad has arrived in the Willamette valley, and that the Chief Engineer, Mr Elliott, is now on a tour through the lower counties, for the purpose of learning facts respecting the route and the means to be obtained in aid of the survey and improvement, therefore

Resolved, That we will heartily unite in support of the project, with the following restrictions and conditions

1 That all grants of land and other aid by the Government of the United States and means to be appropriated shall be expended in equal portions in Oregon and California, commencing the work at Portland in Oregon and progressing southwardly and at —— in California, and progressing northwardly so that each State and section may derive equal advantages therefrom while the road shall be in process of completion

2 That it shall be distinctly understood that the construction of the said road or the grants and aid of the Government of the United States, in contemplation thereof, are not to interfere with or supplant the project of the great Northern branch of the Pacific Railroad from Salt Lake or some suitable point on the road last mentioned, to Portland

The meeting was then addressed by Jesse Applegate, of Yoncalla, A J Thayer, of Corvallis Col Chapman, of Portland, S Ellsworth, M W Mitchell J B Henderson and others of Lane City, all in support of the foregoing resolutions when the same were unanimously adopted

On motion of Mr Ellsworth, it was

Resolved That we do hereby request our several representatives in the legislature to memorialize Congress for the purpose of deceiving the aid of the Government and executing the work within this State

On motion

Resolved, That the Committees hereto fore appointed be requested to prosecute their labors in obtaining means for defraying the expenses of the survey

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Oregon newspapers, and a copy be forwarded to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress

On motion the meeting adjourned

B J PENGRA, Chairman,
M W MITCHELL, Secretary

DARING ROBBERY —A packer well known by the name of French Louis came down by yesterday's boat having with him over $7000 in Boise dust, which he had packed in his blankets After leaving the cars, he proceeded to the French Bakery, on the North side of Main street, nearly opposite Moody's Hull, and laying his blankets down, his attention was called a moment to a child, and when he turned around again his money and blankets were gone At the time of the robbery a number of persons were in the store, but no one was seen to come in or go out The alarm was instantly given and search made, but up to 10 o'clock last night no clue had been obtained to the robbers The money thus stolen was the earnings of Louis during the past summer, and its loss falls heavily upon an honest and deserving man The police are at work, and we are not without hope that the thief or thieves will yet be discovered —

We take the foregoing from the Mountaineer of yesterday Louis came down on the boat, but up to last evening had been unable to find any trace of his property

NO DISPATCH —We are again compelled to depend upon the news which we take from the Sacramento Union, though we ought to be able to give our readers intelligence at least three days later We do not know where the fault is, and feel sure that Mr Bassett, the operator at Yreka, is trying to do his duty Last week however, twice, and we think three times, the dispatches were less than a quarter of those published in the Union and did not even then contain the material and most important news Will somebody South of us look to this, or stop taking our money for useless, and often for no service whatever?

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL —Late Atlantic papers say that it is generally understood at Washington, that Gen Rufus Ingalls who was for many years Quartermaster at Fort Vancouver, will take the position of General Meigge, who has been directed to the field If so certainly there will be energy and efficiency in the head of that Department as all who know Rufus Ingalls knew whatever was wanted would be accomplished if within human capacity

Eastern News

NEW YORK, Oct 23 —Deserters from Richmond corroborate the statements of the destitution in that city and the fears of another great riot

WASHINGTON, Oct 23 —The State Department has been officially informed that from and after the 6th of September last an effective blockade would be established and maintained by the French naval forces of all ports, rivers, roads, creeks etc along the coast of Mexico which are not occupied by French troops and which still acknowledge the authority of Juarez, from Lagos ten miles south of Matamoras and including the Bay of Campeachy Friendly Neutrals will be allowed 20 days to complete loading and leave the blockaded ports The ports excepted from the blockade are Tampico Vera Cruz, Alvarado Tuhasco Coatzacoalcos and Carmen Vessels attempting to violate said blockade will be proceeded against in conformity with international law

WASHINGTON Oct 26 —The Navy Department has information that the steamer De Soto, during the latter part of September when in Southwest Pass received information that one of our steamers had been boarded and carried off by a band of rebels After a run of 35 miles the vessel was recaptured and proved to be the Lewathan She was newly fitted and was amply supplied with coal etc, for a cruise Great satisfaction is expressed by the commander of the De Soto at the capture as the Boston, a much inferior vessel, captured by the rebels some months since was hired by the De Soto and he thus had an opportunity of witnessing the desolation she spread in her path, blackening ocean in her wake with the charred memorials of many fine ships. The Lewathan, with her desperate crew, was sent to New Orleans

Admiral Lee telegraphs from Newport News that the Nansemond had driven ashore the Venus, one of the largest and swiftest block ade runners with a valuable cargo She is totally destroyed

WASHINGTON, Oct 24 —This morning's Chronicle says Meade's headquarters are at Warrenton, and the army is hereabouts in excellent condition It will be some time before it can advance

CHICAGO Oct 24th —The Richmond Enquirer of October 16th says 'Save on our own terms, we can accept no peace whatever these terms are—recognition of the independence of the Confederate States, the withdrawal of the Yankee forces from every foot of Confederate ground, including Kentucky and Missouri, the withdrawal of Yankee soldiers from Maryland until that State shall decide by a free vote, whether she shall remain in the old Union or ask admission into our Union, consent on the part of the Federal Government to give up to the Confederacy its proportion of the navy as it stood at the time of secession, or pay for the same, the yielding up of all pretension on the part of the Federal Government to that portion of all the territory which lies west of the Confederate States, an equitable settlement on the basis of our absolute independence and equal rights of all accounts of the public debt and public lands "

The Enquirer adds "The North must yield all—we nothing the whole pretension of that country to prevent, by force the separation of the States must be abandoned, which will be equivalent to admitting that our enemies were wrong from the first Of course as they have waged a causeless and wicked war upon us, they ought, in strict justice, to be required, according to the usages in such cases, to return us the whole of our expenses and losses in the course of the war "The Enquirer is frank enough to admit that the Confederacy is not in a position to dictate these terms to its enemies, with Rosecrans still in the heart of the country and Meade still on Virginia soil, and it is thought to be too soon to propose such conditions, yet it is important to keep them plainly before the eyes of our people as the only admissible basis of any conceivable peace

CHICAGO Oct 25th —A late Richmond Examiner notices (editorially) the report of the Bank Committee of the Virginia House of Delegates on the reduction of the currency, and says

We are unwilling for an instant to appear to discourage any scheme looking to the reduction of our inflated up r currency, but the truth forces us to say plainly it will prove a failure

The report recommends the negotiation of 800 000 000 of national loan, upon certain terms and conditions

The Examiner takes a rather blue view of the Confederate prospects. The drift of the article seems to be that the only hope of rebel success is from foreign intervention It says

Such decisive military advantages as will reduce the enemy to submission can scarcely be expected If any prompt termination can be hoped for, it is from foreign complications, to which no further continuance will always afford occasion The situation of France, with regard to Mexico, multiplies the danger of collision with the United States, and clearly fixes her policy to be an attitude of sympathy with be South

Information of great suffering, almost reaching famine, among the people of the country through which the two armies in Virginia lately passed, has been received at Washington

NEW YORK, Oct 24th —The Washington correspondent of the Post says Dispatches received here give reason to believe that the quiet at Charleston will soon be broken Col Hawley who is here, fresh from Morris Island gives favorable reports of the condition of affairs in the fleet and army Much anxiety is felt in the fleet for rebel torpedoes Watch is kept particularly at night, over the movements of anything that floats on the water Our own boats are sometimes fired into by mistake.

KNOXVILLE Tenn, Oct 24th —The rebels were driven back beyond Philadelphia to day by Gen Sanders A running fight was kept up till dark Our loss was two killed There are no rebels east of Sweetwater

Col Crawford, of the First Tennessee Artillery, has just returned from an expedition to distribute arms through Virginia and North Carolina and recruit He was successful in both The people were rising everywhere Brownlow and Maynard addressed a large number of people who came from 25 miles around on the 24th Ultra radical sentiments were received with enthusiasm

NASHVILLE Oct 25th —Hooker's force has crossed the Tennessee river and a fight was reported yesterday The telegraph wires were cut this morning, but are now working

MEMPHIS, Oct 25 —The guerrillas around Vicksburg are again growing troublesome

The rebel cavalry, acting under orders from Gen S D Lee, are sweeping back all persons on their way to this city with cotton both from Albion county, Tenn, and Hickbold Bottom, Miss In most cases the owners and drivers are conscripted for the rebel service while the cotton and teams are confiscated for the use of the rebels

Gen McPherson, with a considerable force went after the rebels along the Big Black on the 10th, and came up with the enemy near Canton They retreated, leaving 200 prisoners The rebel infantry lately there had gone to the assistance of Bragg, and the cavalry had taken a position further north McPherson's force remains at Canton

CINCINNATI, Oct 25 —A special dispatch, dated Chattanooga Oct 24th, says Gen Grant arrived in the 23

Deserters report that Breckinridge's and Hindman's corps are withdrawing The rebels are moving in large bodies to our left Their object is not known Rumors are all that Atlanta and Rome have been attacked in the rear The river is high and rising

The Memphis Bulletin Saturday, October 24th, has the following The citizens of the Union forces advanced from this point on the morning of the 21st on Cherokee Station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad eight miles this side of Tuscumbia, Alabama The rebels fled for some time and resulted in a rebel defeat On the day previous a brisk skirmish took place on the same spot between a considerable body of rebels and the Fifth Ohio The rebels killed and wounded were left on the field Our loss was seven killed The cavalry then went in advance of Osterhaus's division Next morning the movement commenced forward This unbridled the troops had not proceeded far when they came to a defile which the rebels had chosen for their retreating ground The whole division soon came up and took possession of the field The rebels in our side were considerably less than 100 killed and wounded Other rebels are said to have very strong fortifications a little this side Tuscumbia Our pickets report that they expected to make a strong defence here It is said they had 40,000 men there Thursday and received reinforcements of 10,000 more on Wednesday some 20,000 more from Bragg's army were expected

Rebel dispatches are said to have been captured recently, in which the rebel officers are enjoined to permit our forces to open up the road between Memphis and Decatur

On Wednesday (21st) the steamer West was captured burned and the passengers robbed by guerrillas between Helena and Memphis

MEMPHIS Oct 24th —Our loss in the affair of the 21st was mostly caused by mistaking Lee's cavalry who were dressed in blue overcoats for our own men Our total loss was seven killed and thirty seven wounded all of whom have been brought to Iuka

NEW YORK Oct 24th —Advices from New Orleans to October 17th have been received intelligence from Vermillionville Lieutenant to time o'clock October 17th say Weitzel's forces have been skirmishing nearly every day for a week without many casualties on our side On the 16th we lost six men and the enemy about the same number Their force in that vicinity is estimated at 20 000

The fall of salt works in the vicinity of Lake Clear (Mississippi Sound) had been destroyed

The United States steamer Tacony destroyed four rich prizes off the Texas coast They were literally loaded with ammunition and stores for the rebels

The old flag again floats over Bayou Teche—all obstructions in the bayou having been removed by our naval forces

The Governor has modified the order for registration in voting in such a manner that all loyal citizens may be registered as voters upon taking the oath of allegiance and making declaration that such oath is taken voluntarily for the purposed of establishing a Government loyal to the United States

Advices from Texas say that Matamoras is still occupied by the French and that the people of Texas and the Confederate officials are in open opposition to each other

The Alta, in publishing a portion of O'Connell's address to the Repeal Association of Cincinnati, which was the most caustic philippic against slavery ever written says

It should be read by every American voter and especially by all Irishmen of America We observe that Irish newspapers in this State which can always find space for John Mitchell's long letters against the Union and freedom, far from quoting O Connell's letter, do not even mention it They do not love O'Connell less but Copperheadism more Copperheadism means protection to slavery, against the nation, in defiance of the spirit of the age and regardless of justice, mercy and religion

DON'T LIKE THE NAME.—The pirate Maffit writes to the Paris Patrie to say that he is not a pirate He quotes Noel and Chapsel to prove that the Florida is not a privateer, because she is not armed by private individuals If not, then the British Government did it Maffit shifts the responsibility very leverly putting it where it belongs

PROSPECTOR A THROUGH TELEGRAPH — Mr Strong who arrived on the stage last night, informs us that the ship S C Grant, 182 days from New York arrived at San Francisco Oct 4th, bringing all the telegraph wire necessary to complete the line from Portland to Yreka, and that the work will be prosecuted to Yreka, and that the wire will be through by the first week in January, 1864 The S C Grant was for some time supposed to have been lost at sea or captured by the Anglo-rebel pirates, and her arrival marks the dawn of an important era in the progress of our State A portion of the wire is expected to arrive at this point on the next steamship to sail from San Francisco, when the work will be immediately proceeded with from this end of the line. Strong returned to Yreka on the morning, to superintend the putting up of sixty miles of wire already there We expected that there will be an ample supply of wire at Yreka from San Francisco, for transportation overland before it is needed, for, the progress of the work may be impeded The poles are already for the line along the entire route

Telegraphic.—By the Through Telegraph—Mr. Murray has arrived on the stage last night, bringing us the news that the ship S C Grant, which left New York, arrived at San Francisco on the 4th inst., bringing all the telegraph material to complete the line from Portland to Yreka, and that the work will be prosecuted with vigor, and completed during the month of January, 1864. The S C Grant was at one time supposed to have been destroyed or captured by the Anglo-rebel pirates, but her arrival marks the dawn of a new era in the progress of our State. Another wire is expected to arrive at San Francisco by the next steamship to sail from New York, when the work will be immediately pushed with from this end of the line. Mr. Murray returns to Yreka on the morning train, to superintend the putting up the sixty miles of wire already there awaiting. It is expected that there will be an ample supply of wire at Yreka from San Francisco for transportation overland before it is needed, so that the progress of the work may not be delayed. The poles are already for the entire route.

Drum Drill.—Company A, 1st Regiment, Oregon Militia, Captain Wm S Ladd, were engaged yesterday, at Armory (Lincoln) Hall, in the duties of their drill. The occasion drew together a large crowd of lookers-on, among whom were representatives of the military arm. This Company is composed of young men of East Portland and vicinity, and requires hither to drill for the want of a suitable armory hall across the river. It has been organized but a few months, and already includes much of the material of which they are made, in a comparatively short time. They evince a disposition to learn, and regularity in their manoeuvres and, if persisted in for a few months will compel some of our 'crack' volunteer companies to look to their laurels. Marching and wheeling, both in common and double quick time, were creditable, and others may well feel proud of the progress toward proficiency of their men.

Board of Directors.—Geo W Murray, President Directors —Geo W Murray, Chas Holbrook, Secretary of the O S N Co, informs us that at the annual election held yesterday by the stockholders of said Company the following gentlemen were re-elected Directors for the year commencing on the first Monday in December next J C Ainsworth, D F Bradford, R R Thompson, Chas Holbrook and S. G. Reed The following officers were then re-elected as Executive Committee J C Ainsworth, President, Daniel Kellogg, Vice President, George W Vaughan, Secretary The retention of these gentlemen in their several positions is a deserved compliment to their integrity and ability.

Receipts.—The amount of gold per Express last night, could not have been less than $150,000, and it is probable that it would not exceed the fact Wells, Fargo & Co received $40,000, and among the passengers who came down on the boat, was heavily loaded, and a fair proportion of it is said to be blest with comfortable quantities. It is always impossible to make an approximate of the gold receipts from the mines, and it is only when human ingenuity is overcome by bodily fatigue, that a correct estimate may be drawn of the fact which many miners have upon their backs.

Going to Their Topmast.—The flag-staff of the Willamette Engine Co No 1, in their engine hall, has been housed for the winter. It is still a goodly distance to the truck, but which surmounts the hauliyard.

Circuit Court.—The County Court, Judge Strahan presiding, held a session yesterday, and will this morning

Fire Alarm.—One of the most delightful and fashionable places of resort only for several years past has been Brinker's Ice Cream and Oyster Saloon, on Front street. It is a place where ladies can be accommodated and gratified with the best the market affords, each—emphatically so. Ladies to a lunch, in the day or evening Mr De Lashmutt has taken a partner, and the saloon will hereafter be conducted under the firm of Dekum & Beikel, who will no doubt receive a liberal share of patronage Give them a call when ladies along.

Change of Proprietorship.—The old "Empire" stand, formerly owned by John Empire, has been re purchased of its late owners (Weeks & Gilmore), by Mr Empire, who will be glad to see his old friends, and cater for them a sirloin, porterhouse steak agreeably with the season, and from carcasses fat as

Rheumatism Cured.—WILLIAMSTON Vt May 15, 1862 —Messrs A L Scovill & Co—Dear Sirs It is with great pleasure that I reply to your inquiry as to what effect your Panacea has had upon my long standing complaint—Rheumatism In March 1861, I was confined to the house and finally was obliged to keep my bed, suffering intensely from pain in the back and head, when through the influence of a neighbor I got a bottle of DR BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, which I used externally and internally, according to directions Within twenty four hours I was able to commence work and in two days was completely cured I have had several attacks of Rheumatism since, but a single trial of the PANACEA has always brought immediate relief

Suspense.

The majestic tones of this patriotic poem should sound like the stormy waves of faction like a voice from Heaven.—Louisville Journal.

"How long, oh, Lord! how long?"
Shall the dark cloud of faction brood above us?
Has our Creator ceased to act and love us?
That thus He rends the strung
Asunder as the wythes of flax are riven,
To be the sport of every wind of heaven?

"How long"—before the storm
Shall burst above us with its wild commotion,
While gargoyle as the changing crests of heaven
That Simoom winds deform,
Brothers in armed bands across the nation—
Sweep on to scatter death and devastation?

Answer us—Lord of Hosts!
We call upon Thee as in Hebrew story,
Before the land of Israel lost her glory—
With praise and holocausts
Her prophets—close to earth their foreheads leaning
Questioned in prayer:—the mystery of Thy meaning.

Turn not away Thy face
From those who long have learned to lean upon Thee—
Holy and pure was he who early won Thee
To grant to us Thy grace
Sacred the sword—that clove in might asunder
Our chains—and left us free to work Thy wonder!

The people of Thy land
We shall have been, however steeped in error,
Oh! point us not to parallels of terror
In broken ropes of sand!
Let us not feel that shattered is the promise
Of rainbow hope—that closed the tempest from us!

We have been reared a fane
Whose glittering spires might pierce the cope of heaven,
Shall we—like men of old—to madness driven,
Be cast aroud forth again—
With muttered words—bear the world's derision
Before the finished structure meets the vision?

We who have trained from birth
To fix His eyes upon the sun of morning
Our mother's bird! all heaven shall be scorning!
All creeping things of earth!
Say! shall we watch him sink with broken pinion,
Sun-scathed and stricken from Thy proud dominion?

We who flung on high
A banner gemmed with stars that paled no lustre
Even to the light of orbs that nightly cluster
In the unfathomed sky—
How can we bear to see them fall to ashes—
Like meteors of a moment—spent in flashes?

In our unfaltering trust—
In our strong agony—our deep dejection—
Our love of truth—our brotherly affection—
We—creatures of the dust—
Cry to thee thus—as tempest beats along—
We fain would pause: "How long—oh, Lord! how long!"

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE'S COMPREHENSIVE IN 1860.—The following letter, addressed by Ex-President Pierce to Jeff Davis, appears in the Concord, N. H., Democrat:

CLARENDON HOTEL, January 6, 1860.

MY DEAR FRIEND.—I wrote you an unsatisfactory note a day or two since. I have just had a pleasant interview with Shepley, whose courage and fidelity are equal to his learning and talents. He says he would rather fight the battle with you as the standard-bearer, in 1860, than under the auspices of any other leader. The feeling and judgment of Shepley in the relation is, I am confident, rapidly gaining ground in New England. Our people are looking for the "Coming Man." One who is raised by all the elements of his character above the atmosphere ordinarily breathed by politicians, a man really fitted for this emergency by his ability, courage, broad statesmanship and patriotism. Col. Seymour, (Thomas H.,) arrived here this morning and expressed his views in this relation in almost the identical language used by Shepley. It is true that in the present state of things at Washington, and throughout the country, no man can predict what changes two or three months may bring forth.

Let me suggest that in the morning debates of Congress full justice seems to me not to have been done to the Democracy of the North. I do not believe that our friends at the South have any just idea of the state of feeling hurrying at this moment to the pitch of intense exasperation between those who respect their political obligations and those who have apparently no impelling power but that which fanatical passion on the subject of domestic slavery imparts. Without discussing the question of right—of abstract power to secede, I have never believed that actual disruption of the Union can occur without blood; and if through the madness of Northern Abolitionists that dire calamity must come, the fighting will not be along Mason and Dixon's line merely. It will be within our own borders; in our own streets, between the two classes of citizens to whom I have referred. Those who defy law and scout constitutional obligations will, if we ever reach the arbitrament of arms, find occupation enough at home.

Nothing but the state of Mrs Pierce's health would induce me to leave the country now, although it is quite likely that my presence at home would be of little service. I have tried to impress upon our people, especially in New Hampshire and Connecticut, where the only elections are to take place during the coming Spring, that while our Union meetings are all in the right direction and well enough for the present, they will not be worth the paper upon which their resolutions are written unless we can overthrow political Abolitionism at the polls and repeal the unconstitutional and obnoxious laws which in the cause of "Personal Liberty" have been placed upon our statute books. I shall look with deep interest, and not without hope, for a decided change in this relation.

Ever and truly, your friend,
FRANKLIN PIERCE.

HON. JEFF DAVIS, Washington, D. C.

GOVERNOR CURTIN.—The Washington Star gets off the following on Governor Curtin, who is known to be socially inclined:

Governor Andy Curtin recently had "an adventure with a guerrilla," on his way down per rail, from the recent Pennsylvania sword presentation to General Meade. He had among his fellow passengers, on the box car assigned for the conveyance of himself and the distinguished crowd accompanying him, Chapman, a correspondent with the army, upon whom the country contains no more effective and amusing ventriloquist. On reaching Fairfax Station, while all in the car were quite agreeable from champagne as on starting, the Governor heard some one calling him from the dense woods and undergrowth, a hundred yards or so off—"Andy Curtin!" "Andy Curtin!" "Halle, who's that?" responded the Governor, in a loud voice, having rushed to the open door of the car.

"Never mind who I am; I know you. Come out here, Andy Curtin. I've got the best bottle of whisky ever brought into Virginia; so come and take a good drink."

"Why, the fellow, whoever he is, does seem to know me," ejaculated the Governor to those in the car. "I can't go there," he added in a loud voice; the train might start and leave me. You come here, my friend, quick."

"No, by —, I won't. I've got a furlough, and am going home to vote, and I'll be d—d if I don't vote plump again you if you don't come out here and drink with me," again responded the distant voice from the undergrowth and woods.

"Oh! it's very clear the fellow, whoever he is, is well acquainted with me," said the Governor, who immediately appealed to the conductor, standing near the car door, to detain the train for a moment to let him, go where his friend and constituent was, as it would never do to be uncivil to him so far from home. The conductor, familiar with Chapman's pranks when passing up and down the road, slyly hinted to the Governor that it was by no means impossible that his friend and constituent might be no other than some deserter from the Pennsylvania Reserves, who, having become one of Moseby's men, was essaying to "stole" him out of the car—having caught a glimpse of his person through the open door—so as to get a fair shot at him.

This information of course caused the Governor to recollect instantly that his duty to the mass of his constituents at home was under the circumstances, perhaps, paramount to his duty to the constituent with the best bottle of whisky in hand in Moseby's prowling ground around Fairfax Station. On being let into the secret one reaching Washington, no one is said to have enjoyed the joke more keenly than the Governor himself.

REVOLUTIONS NEVER GO BACKWARDS.—The Nevada Transcript has an article dilating upon the changes in political sentiment since the opening of the civil war, and concludes by saying:

Revolutions never go backwards. We cannot return to the old position of mind occupied at the outset of this rebellion. We must progress in the same direction still more until there will be no effective opposition to the extinction of human bondage throughout the length and breadth of the land. It is necessary to establish the American Union on a firm and enduring basis. "Only radical measures are conciliatory," says De Gasparin. The radicalism that would make the people of the whole Union homogeneous and without opugnant interests, is the policy to cure the evils that have afflicted the country and which have culminated in this infernal war.

CROWDED.—"Mother, where's the man going to sleep?" asked a girl of fifteen of her mother, who had just promised a traveler a night's rest in their out of the way hut. "I'll have to put him in with your and Jack and Kate and Sue and Bet, I suppose," was the reply, "and if it's too crowded, one of you must turn in with me and dad and Dick and the twins."

QUICK WORK.—A firm of biscuit manufacturers in Carlisle, England, by way of showing what could be done by rapid work recently had a field of wheat reaped, the grain thrashed and ground, and the flour made into biscuits, which were served hot on the breakfast table at eight o'clock, in exactly four hours from the time the sickle was first put into the standing grain.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and reputation of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) many Quacks and unprincipled persons are attempting to palm upon the public various preparations of their own manufacture, under the same or similar name, or with some slight change in the name, and in many instances copying the exact style of the genuine, even to the very form of the bottle, the engraved wrapper, the shape of the label, and the general appearance of the whole article, hoping to reap a portion of the profits which rightfully belong to the proprietor of the Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Bitters, Cordials, Tonics, Elixirs, Invigorators, Renovators, &c., now flooding the country, many of which are chiefly made of cheap whiskey or common rum, mixed with a few roots and herbs, and sold at a low price per gallon, the taste of which nearly produces intoxication, thereby creating a desire for more, which is the cause of many a poor drunkard. By the use of these poisonous beverages, many are led to the drunkard's grave, who, if they had never tasted any thing stronger than pure water, would have been sober men. Many are led to the use of these poisonous beverages, under the impression that they are good for the stomach, when in fact they are the most injurious to health, and should be shunned as you would shun the pestilence. The only way to be sure that you are not imposed upon by these vile compounds, is to ask for Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, and see that his name is blown in the bottle, and that his signature is on the wrapper. All others are counterfeits.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article, but have been before the public for upwards of fifteen years, and their unparalleled reputation and sale are not excelled by any other preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS,
and others,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to take?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of dyspepsia?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a bold and vigorous system?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

I am now free to say to my friends and the public, that for the removal of dyspepsia, for want of appetite, for encouragement to try them, which I did more from curiosity and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of the Bitters, at the beginning of the winter, was followed by evident relief, and by the use of a few bottles more, I was restored to sound health, and my mental vigor, which had been for a long time prostrated, was fully restored. Through Divine favor, I have been blessed with good health ever since, and I feel it a duty I owe to suffering humanity, to say to the debilitated, that I have used many bottles of Bitters, and have never used any thing that would compare with them in curing the diseases for which they are recommended. I have frequently prescribed them in my practice, and have never been disappointed in the result. I have no hesitation in saying that they are the best bitters now before the public, and that no person will be disappointed in using them, who will be prudent in diet, and not make himself sick by eating improper food. I have recommended them to my friends in the ministry, and they concur with me in opinion that they are the best bitters before the public. I have no interest in recommending them, only that of seeing my fellow men enjoy health, which they will do by using Hoofland's German Bitters.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30, 1862.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations of Sarsaparilla, put up in quart bottles, and sold at the same price as Hoofland's German Bitters, (one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars,) which contain little else than whiskey or common rum, and from four to six pints can be made from one gallon, the taste of which nearly produces intoxication, and creates a desire for more. This class of bitters are destroying the health of thousands of the drunkard. By the use of these bitters, many are led to the drunkard's grave, who, if they had never tasted any thing stronger than pure water, would have been sober men. Many are led to the use of these poisonous beverages, under the impression that they are good for the stomach, when in fact they are the most injurious to health, and should be shunned as you would shun the pestilence.
